Sir:

Following up our telephone call today, the following is the link to Dr. Horn's short "sticky path" movie that you can download at:

<http://www.ingenuitysoftware.com/screencasts/StickyPath.mov>

It's 20MB, and you will need QuickTime to view it. Please let me know if you can download, open and play it, and if the audio is OK. You will probably need to increase the audio volume.

If this works OK, Applicant will want to send you an extended demo with other features out of main claims 1 and 11. We will be filing a Supplemental Response, most likely this week, and we will include a copy of this e-mail to make this communication of record in the file.

Respectfully submitted,

Jacques M. Dulin, Esq.
